Historic Summit

Thursday, May 5th

6:30 – 8:45 p.m.

Manhattan Public Library

629 Poyntz Ave.

Details

The Historic Resources Board (host), the Riley County Historical Society and Museum, and the Manhattan/Riley County Preservation Alliance invite the community to participate in a program and discussion of topics pertaining to historic preservation in the Manhattan area and Riley County.

Keynote address: K. Vance Kelley will provide the keynote address, entitled, “Preservation 50: Mission Possible!” Mr. Kelley is one of the principals with Treanor Architects in Topeka. For the past nine years, he has been one of the advisors for the National Trust for Historic Preservation representing Kansas. Mr. Kelley has served as the Chair of the Advisors for the National Trust for the past three years.

Concurrent sessions: Brenda Spencer, Spencer Preservation, will provide information about renovating a Mid-Century Modern structure and the process to develop a register nomination. Kail Katzenmeier, Capstone3D Development Studio, will describe the process of rehabilitating Sam Kimble’s farmstead and the transformation of the historic residence into a vacation rental.

Panel discussion: The panel discussion will focus on tips and tools for purchasing and renovating an older home. Panelists will include Penny Alonso, KS State Bank; Eileen Meyer, ERA High Pointe Realty; Mel Borst, Borst Restoration; and John Stamey, Re:done.
